Acceptance of this card implies your agreement to surrender it to the club secretary if you cease to be a member.

All Rotarians are requested to present this card when visiting a club where they are not personally known.

Here is your new Rotary club membership card. Please sign the reverse side.

When you wish to arrange attendance or “make up” at another club, consult Where Clubs Meet at www.rotary.org. Alternately, you may check with your club secretary for meeting information from the Official Directory, Rotary’s worldwide listing of club meeting times and places. When you make up at another club, it is helpful to show your membership card.
